shall be unable or unwilling within fourteen days to name a venue, by the requisitionists.

Seven days notice shall be given in respect of all Extraordinary Meetings of the Council, and the purpose for which a meeting is called shall be stated in the notice convening such meetings.

(13) COMMITTEES

The Council shall appoint an Editing Committee and an Executive Committee each consisting of not more than four Members of the Council. The President and Vice-Presidents for the time being shall be “ex-officio” Members of all committees.

(14) COMMITTEE COMPOSITION AND FUNCTIONS

(14a) The Editing Committee shall be charged with the duties of provisionally preparing and approving publications to be issued by the Society, examining and approving pedigrees and certificates and enquiring into and deciding upon any question or dispute which may arise in connection therewith.

And to prepare and present a report for the AGM

(14b) The Executive Committee shall be responsible for all financial matters connected with the Society including the investment of funds, monies spent to promote the Welsh Breed in Publications here and overseas, promoting Welsh Classes and Shows and to extend the popularity and usefulness of the Welsh Breed.

Examining and approving pedigrees and certificates and enquiring into and deciding upon any question or dispute which may arise in connection therewith.

And to prepare and present a report for the AGM

(14c) The Council shall have power to appoint such standing or sub-committees additional to those provided for in the Rules and to delegate to such committees such powers and functions as it may from time to time deem necessary.

(14d) All committees shall be appointed annually by the Council at its first meeting subsequent to the Annual General Meeting of Members in each year and shall assume office forthwith. The Members shall remain in office until the following Annual General Meeting but retiring Members shall be eligible for re-appointment if they are still Members of the Council.

(14e) At the first meeting subsequent to its appointment in each year, each standing committee shall appoint its own Chairman and Minute Secretary. The Chairman shall preside at each meeting of that committee at which the Chairman may be present and in the absence of the Chairman the Members present at each meeting shall by a majority vote appoint a Chairman from amongst their number but only for the purposes of that meeting. The Chairman and Secretary of each committee shall hold office until the next Annual General Meeting but shall be eligible for re-election if still Members of the Committee.

(14f) The quorum of all standing sub-committees shall be three.

(14g) The reports, findings and recommendations of all Committees and sub-committees shall be subject to confirmation by the Council, and shall be presented to the Council by the Chairman of each committee, or, in their absence, by the elected Chairman. In the absence of the Chairman they shall be presented by the Secretary or the Secretary's deputy.

(15) JUDGES LIST

The Council shall every year, keep the Judges List updated and current.

(17) MEMBERSHIP

Membership shall be of the following kinds namely

(17a) ANNUAL MEMBER

(17b) JUNIOR MEMBER

(17c) LIFE MEMBER.

(17a) ANNUAL MEMBERSHIP shall be open to any person over the age of 18 who is approved by the Council.

(17b) JUNIOR MEMBERSHIP shall be open to any person 18 years and under who is approved by Council. A Junior Member shall not be entitled to vote or to hold office as a Member of Council.

(17c) LIFE MEMBERSHIP shall be open to any annual Member who is approved by Council.

In the case of Junior Membership, age shall be determined as at the date of application for Membership but once having been admitted to such Membership the Member so admitted shall be entitled to remain such a Member until the next subscriptions are due following the date on which such Member attains the age of 19 years as the case may be.

(17d) Application for Membership shall be made to the Secretary on an approved application form and shall be accompanied by the prescribed subscription.

(17e) Every application for Membership shall be referred to the Council and the Council shall either grant Membership to the applicant or decline the application. If the application is declined the subscription tendered by the applicant shall be immediately refunded. It shall not be necessary to give any reason for declining an application.

(18) HONORARY LIFE MEMBER

Honorary Life Members may be elected, from time to time, at the Annual General Meeting on the recommendation of Council, in recognition of conspicuous services rendered by them to the Society and breeds. An Honorary Life Member shall not be required to pay any subscription upon election or thereafter, and shall be entitled to enjoy all the privileges of Membership.

(19) PATRON

On the recommendation of the Council a Patron may be appointed at an Annual General Meeting. A Patron shall be a Member in good standing, shall be appointed for a term not exceeding three years and shall not be eligible for re-appointment for consecutive terms. This is not a Council position.

(20) RESIGNATION OF MEMBERS

Any Member may resign from Membership by giving to the Secretary not less than one month's written notice to that effect and paying any subscription due prior to the date such notice was given but no Member resigning shall be entitled to any refund of the subscription paid by him.

(21) PAYMENT OF SUBSCRIPTIONS

The subscriptions payable by Members shall be fixed from time to time at the Annual General Meeting and may be fixed at differing rates according to the class of Membership. The subscription year shall be from the 1st of September through to 31st of August of the following year and any Member who has not paid such monies within two months after the same becomes due and payable, shall be deemed to be in arrears.

A Member who is in arrears with the payment of their subscription shall not be entitled to any Membership privileges or vote at any meeting of the Society, Council, committees or sub-committee, or to be elected to any office under the Society.

If any Member shall fail to pay subscriptions due by them to the Society within two months after the same becomes due and payable, the Council may strike the name of such Member off the roll of Members and such persons shall thereupon cease to be a Member of the Society but without prejudice to their liability to pay such subscriptions.

(22) DISCIPLINARY POWERS

(1) Subject to these Rules, the Council may by resolution:

- (a) Expel a Member from the Society;
- (b) Suspend a Member from Membership of the Society for a specified period; or
- (c) Reprimand a Member, or a combination of any of the above.

If it is of the opinion that a Member:

- (i) Has refused or neglected to comply with these Rules and/or Regulations of The Welsh Pony & Cob Society of New Zealand; or
- (ii) Has been guilty of conduct unbecoming a Member, or prejudicial to the interests of the Society; or
- (iii) Where there is a doubtful or suspicious pedigree, or alleged willful misrepresentation.

(2) A resolution of the Council under sub-cause (1) does not take effect unless the Council, at a meeting held not earlier than 14 days and not later than 28 days after the service on the Member of a Notice under sub-clause (3), confirms the resolution in accordance with this clause.

(3) Where the Council passes a resolution under sub-clause (1) the Secretary shall, as soon as practicable, cause to be served on the Member a notice in writing:

- (a) Setting out the resolution of the Council and the grounds on which it is based;
 - (b) Stating that the Member may address the Council at the Meeting to be held not earlier than 14 days after service of the notice and not later than 28 days;
 - (c) Stating the date, place and time of that Meeting;
 - (d) Informing the Member that he/she may do one or either of the following:
 - (i) Attend the Meeting or
 - (ii) Give to the Council before the date of that meeting a written statement seeking the revocation of resolution.
- (4) At the Meeting of the Council held in accordance with the sub-clause (2) the Committee:
- (a) Shall give to the Member an opportunity to be heard;
 - (b) Shall give due consideration to any written statement submitted by the Member; and
 - (c) Shall by resolution determine whether to confirm, to vary or to revoke the resolution.

The removal or suspension of a Member shall not relieve them of liability for the payment of any arrears of their subscription or any debt or payment due from him/her to the Society.

(23) DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- 23.1 If a dispute arises out of or relates to the Rules of the Society a party to the Agreement may not commence any Court or arbitration proceedings relating to the dispute unless it has complied with the following paragraphs of this clause except where the party seeks urgent injunctive relief.
- 23.2 A party to these Rules claiming that a dispute (“the Dispute”) has arisen under or in relation to the Rules must give written notice (“the Notice”) to the other party specifying the nature of the Dispute.
- 23.3 On receipt of the Notice by the other party, the parties (“the Parties”) must endeavour in good faith to resolve the Dispute expeditiously using informal dispute resolution techniques such as mediation, expert evaluation or determination or similar techniques agreed by them.
- 23.4 If the parties do not agree within seven (7) days of receipt of the Notice (or such further period agreed in writing by them) as to:
- a) the dispute resolution technique and procedures to be adopted; and
 - b) the timetable for all steps in those procedures; and
 - c) the selection and compensation of the independent person required for such technique;

Then the parties must mediate the Dispute in accordance with the Mediation Rules of the New Zealand Chapter of LEADR (Lawyers Engaged in Alternative Dispute Resolution) and the chairperson for the time being of the

New Zealand Chapter of LEADR will select the mediator and determine the mediator's remuneration.

(24) MEETINGS OF MEMBERS ANNUAL GENERAL MEETING

An Annual General Meeting of Members of the Society shall be held every year within three months of the end of the financial year (March 31st) and twenty-one days notice thereof, and of the business to be transacted thereat, shall be given to every Member.

(25) NOTICES OF MOTION

Notices of Motion or Notices of Amendments to be proposed at the Annual General Meeting shall be forwarded to the Secretary at least fourteen days prior to such meeting and the Secretary shall forward details of such Notices of Motion or Amendments to all Members not less than seven days before such meeting.

(26) QUORUM

The Quorum for an Annual General Meeting shall be 20 Members who are entitled to vote as contained in Rules (28), (28a), (28b) and (28c) herein shall apply.

(27) EXTRAORDINARY GENERAL MEETING

An extraordinary general meeting of the Members of the Society may be called at the request of the President or upon receipt of a requisition addressed to the Secretary and signed by at least five Members of the Council or twenty Members of the Society. Any such requisition shall state the purpose for which the meeting is required.

The President shall then name a date and venue within 21 days of receiving such Requisition and such meetings must take place within 45 days of such Requisition. Twenty-one days notice of an Extraordinary General Meeting and the business to be conducted thereat shall be given to Members and the provisions as to motions, quorum, proxies and voting contained in Rules (25), (26) and (28), (28a), (28b) and (28c) herein shall apply.

(28) VOTING

Each financial Member of the Society other than Junior Members shall be entitled to vote and shall be entitled to appoint a proxy to attend and vote at the Annual General Meeting on their behalf but such proxy must be a Member of the Society. Proxy forms shall be forwarded to all Members with the notice of meeting and to be effective must be returned duly completed to the Secretary prior to the commencement of the meeting.

(28a) Members may only hold five (5) Proxy Votes.

(28b) Voting at an Annual General Meeting shall be on voices or at the discretion of the Chairman on a show of hands unless any Member present shall call for a poll in which case the voting shall be counted on the basis of the number of proxy votes held by each Member present in addition to his own vote.

(28c). To be eligible to vote at an Annual General Meeting or an Extraordinary General Meeting of the Society a person must be a Member for three consecutive months immediately prior to the aforementioned meeting.

REGULATIONS

(29) THE STUD BOOK AND APPENDICES REGULATIONS.

The Council shall have the power to make and from time to time to amend regulations governing the publication of the Welsh Stud Book, the contents thereof, and the conditions of entry therein, and as part of the registration of animals of either pure or part bred and the fixing of fees therefore and as to disciplinary or corrective proceedings in the case of any doubtful or suspicious registration or attempted registration.
